Facilitators: Prem Dick, Laurel Martin, Jeff Roth Martin, and Jim Spicher
Today's presenters: Ruth Hartzler Martin, Jennifer Miller, Audrey Patterson and Herb Myers

1st service John Kanagy

2nd service Rachel Kraybill-Stahl

<sup>5</sup> This is what the Lord says: "Cursed is the one who trusts in man, who depends on flesh for his strength and whose heart turns away from the Lord.

<sup>6</sup> He will be like a bush in the wastelands; he will not see prosperity when it comes. He will dwell in the parched places of the desert, in a salt land where no one lives.

<sup>7</sup> "But blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in him.

<sup>8</sup> He will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit."

<sup>10</sup> "I the Lord search the heart and examine the mind, to reward a man according to his conduct, according to what his deeds deserve."

Jeremiah 17:5-10

Scripture 1st service John Kanagy
2nd service Rachel Kraybill-Stahl

<sup>17</sup>He went down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of his disciples was there and a great number of people from all over Judea, from Jerusalem, and from the coast of Tyre and Sidon, <sup>18</sup>who had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases. Those troubled by evil spirits were cured, <sup>19</sup>and the people all tried to touch him, because power was coming from him and healing them all.

<sup>20</sup>Looking at his disciples, he said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. <sup>21</sup>Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. <sup>22</sup>Blessed are you when men hate you, when they exclude you and insult you and reject your name as evil, because of the Son of Man.

<sup>23</sup>"Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in heaven. For that is how their fathers treated the prophets. <sup>24</sup>"But woe to you who are rich, for you have already received your comfort. <sup>25</sup>Woe to you who are well fed now, for you will go hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep. <sup>26</sup>Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for that is how their fathers treated the false prophets.

Luke 6:17-26

Singing I bind my heart this tide Hymnal #411

Sermon "The Dream of God." Chad Martin

Announcements

Sending and Blessing

Now we are leaving.

Everyone will submerge once again in his or her activities,

Some of them important, others, not.

We leave something here, some complications that have arisen, would be best left behind because we will run into them some other place.

We leave beautiful people, visible and invisible, who have helped us.

We take our minds full of words, of ideas, inspirations, songs, images, and stories,

And we take ourselves, not always easy to do,

And we take Jesus' presence who never leaves us alone,

And we take this beautiful greeting: May God bless you.
