FOR WEEK OF JUNE 10—JUNE 16

CMCL

ALL CHURCH PARTY, SATURDAY, JUNE 23—Meet at the church 8:30 a.m. or anytime thereafter to join in the fun of working with Facilities Committee to spruce up our space. Coffee, juice and doughnuts will provide the kicker you need to get started. There are appropriate jobs for all skill levels. Don't miss this semi-annual event.

LOST AND FOUND—A significant number of lost and found items have accumulated and are on display in the Fellowship Room. Check for things that may be yours. Unclaimed goods will be up for grabs Sunday, June 24.

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALLGAME—The CMCL Men's group will host anyone of CMCL at a Lancaster Barnstormers baseball team. This is open to all regardless of gender, age or knowledge of baseball. Date is Friday, July 6, 2007, 7:05 p.m. The cost is $8 per ticket. Reserve your tickets by contacting Leon Kraybill (560-5194 or leon@kraybill.net). First come, first served on the 45 reserved tickets.

- Focused discussions: announced each week, 10 a.m.

AVOID “ROD HOUSER” HARRASSMENT—Return your planned giving forms for next year’s general budget to Sandy Miller BEFORE the June 24 deadline. Or pledge online at www.communitymennonite.org.

CMCL $$ GIVING - If you've been following our budget year, you'll be aware we've been running behind budget and have now dipped to $18,000 below where we want to be in the year. Our budget year closes August 31. If you want to know where you're at in your own giving, call or e-mail Sandy Miller who can summarize your giving for you. (295-2333 or sandy@allegrapa.com) You can also leave a message for Sandy in the CMCL office.

A NEW VOICE IN THE OFFICE - Gloria Hoelzel has been hired as a part-time administrative assistant in the CMCL office. She fills Donna Stoltzfus' 12 hour position which has been open since February. Thanks, Rod, for picking up some of the pieces during this time. Gloria lives in Valleybrook Estates off of Oregon Pike. She worked in the office at Lancaster Catholic High School for many years and has been working part-time for the Junior League of Lancaster for 18 years. Gloria is the social director at Valleybrook as well as being on the Board of Directors there. She enjoys singing with the award-winning Red Rose City Chorus of Sweet Adelines International. Gloria will be working in the church office on Mondays and Thursdays. Welcome, Gloria!

YOUR RECYCLING—6–8th graders invited you to drop off your old ink cartridges, box tops and soup labels. So far they've raised around $100 for Fulton School through this effort. There were 25 ink cartridges donated which brings the school $75 in supplies. The box is still available in the coffee lobby.

SONGS OF HOPE CONCERT AT CMCL MONDAY, JUNE 18—Bess Klassen-Landis at CMCL, Monday, June 18, 7 p.m. "My music is about healing, as my own life has been. And healing is what this world needs. My folk songs come out of my life experience. The messages in my songs are at times bittersweet, acknowledging pain, but grounded in the lightness of my heart and my profound Joy."
—Bess Klassen-Landis

R&R TIME—Emily Smucker-Beidler returns tomorrow from a week's vacation. Pam Dintaman leaves Tuesday for a week of desert rest. She returns Monday night, June 18.

Community/General Mennonite

EVERYONE IS INVITED to Landis Homes West Bethany Chapel on Tuesday, June 12, at 7 p.m. for an evening with Paul Burkholder and John Kraybill sharing serious and humorous stories of their lives as taxi drivers, pastors, etc. in New York City. John and Paul helped to inspire and edit the writing of the book Mennonite and Brethren in Christ Churches of New York City written by Richard K. MacMaster. Copies of the book will be available for sale that evening, and there will also be book signings.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY—Friendship Community is in need of staff to further their mission of serving people with disabilities in Christian group homes in Lancaster County. If you are interested in finding out more about this ministry, contact Melody Jacobs at 717-656-2466, ext. 162.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY—Friendship Community is looking for volunteers! We are looking for drivers and an assistant for the Creative Movement Team. For information, call Friendship’s Volunteer Coordinator, Betty Hess, at 717-656-2466, ext. 165.

NEW LIGHT, a seven-member vocal ensemble from Messiah College, will present a concert of sacred music at Neffsville Mennonite Church, 2371 Lititz Pike, on Tuesday, June 19 at 7 p.m. The concert is free and open to the public.

CREATED TO PRAISE—Students may still register to attend Created to Praise, a one-week day camp held at Neffsville Mennonite Church. Please visit our web page, www.neffmc.org, for a complete class listings as well as registration forms.

BOOK SIGNING—Truman Brunk will be at Provident/Berean Bookstore in Lancaster, Sat, June 16, 11 a.m.–2 p.m. to sign his new book, That Amazing Junk-Man, The Agony and Ecstasy of a Pastor's Life, a compilation of stories from forty years in the ministry. Truman was pastor at Akron Mennonite Church in the 1980s, and has recently served as interim pastor at Neffsville Mennonite Church and is currently serving as interim pastor at Landisville Mennonite Church.

PLANNING AHEAD TO 2009?—Next Mennonite World Conference will be held July 13-19, 2009, in Asuncion, Paraguay. There are about 32,000 Mennonites in Paraguay who are culturally, linguistically and ethnically very diverse. Each day will include worship, songs from around the world, prayer, Bible study, eating together, playing and visiting. There will be opportunities to be hosted by church communities in Central and South America as people travel before and after the conference
